

Mr. Andre Pope Scott

July 28, 1966 - December 7, 2025

Andre Pope Scott, 59, of Lexington, KY, passed away on December 7, 2025. Born on July 28, 1966 in Lexington, KY to Elester "Tiny" Scott-White and the late Frank George Jr., and step-father, Bruce White.

Andre was known for his wisdom, quick humor, and unwavering love for his family. A proud Black man whose values were rooted in family, community, music, and service. He lived a life marked by loyalty, generosity, joy, and leadership.

In addition to his mother, Andre is survived by his wife, Telisha Scott; his children, Jacob (Christi Roy) Shannon, Andre (Asona McMullen) Ingram, and Jacorey Dawson, all of Lexington; Autumn (Casey Fortin) Garrett of Monticello, Antwan (Kaitlyn) Jackson-Scott and Lashea Jackson of Frankfort; Jeonna Newsom, Jeniece Newsom, and Cobe Penny of Lawrenceburg; his siblings, Antwayne (Tilmesha) George, Louisville; Michael Coffey and Thomas Muhammad, of Lexington; and a special uncle, Sammy K (Maryann) Scott. He also leaves behind thirteen beloved grandchildren, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and friends who loved him dearly.

Andre was educated in Fayette County Public schools attending Maxwell Elementary, Beaumont Middle School, and Lafayette High School. He subsequently built a respected career at LUCG's Division of Water Quality and later worked in a field providing essential medical equipment to homebound patients.

Andre was admired by his colleagues for his work ethic, skill, and dedication. When he wasn't working, he loved cracking jokes, playing cornhole, golfing, softball, coaching, and basketball - and was the best coach and supervisor there ever was (at least, let him tell it!). More than anything, he cherished time spent with those he loved, especially his children and grandchildren.

“ My name is Krista randall I didnt know him that well but I took care of him in the hospital. But what time i was around him we butted heads,joked and talked about family One thing I know for sure was that he loved his family. It was an honor to have taken care of him,I send my deepest condolences to family and friends during this time . I pray God will give you comfort

Andre was an old friend that dates back to the 80's. He was always the same silly funny person every time I saw him. I am truly sorry for your loss of such a young son, husband, brother, and father. To Ms. Tiny, I can't imagine the pain you feel, but God knows and He is and always will rock you in the cradle of His arms. Lean on God for your peace, comfort, and strength. To his brother Antwayne keep your head up and be there for your mom, his kids, and grandkids. I know you're hurting, God knows and He will guide and strengthen you too. To his kids, I know it's painful, but your dad loved you and taught all of you how to survive and what hard work looks like. Take it one day at a time, it will always hurt, but you learn to cherish the memories and sharing those memories will bring comfort along the way. Surround yourselves with people who love you and care for you and lean on them on those bad days. One day at a time, one hour at a time, and sometimes one minute at a time is what it takes and that's okay just take it and know that through it all God is right there with you. To his wife, hang in there and love on your family, hug a little tighter and let them console you too. Most of trust in the Lord through all things and call on Him when think you can't go on He's got you too! Stick together family, lift up one another, and pray for one another. Sending love and prayers to you all!
