“ I have known Sister Williams since I was a child. I remember a song she sang on Kenton street where the Old St John stood (All of my life I'll yes Lord).We visited Mr and Mrs Williams with their 3 Sons Robbie, Lee and Jerry. Sister Williams always have a gentle spirit about her and a God fearing Christian woman. She going to be missed

“ My sweetest Granny,
I will miss you so much! Your love throughout my life will not be forgotten. Your smile and the way you would scream when I would scare you as a child will be lifetime memories of mine.

You were always a safe place for me, and I am forever grateful to God for putting me in your family. I love you so much. Seeing you again will be a great reunion. Enjoy Heaven, Granny.
