

Ms. Anne H. Gray

September 13, 1933 - February 12, 2015

Anne H. Gray was born September 13, 1933 in Mortonville, KY to Louis and Hattie Higgins.

Anne attended Douglas High School in Lexington, KY. However, she graduated from Simmons High School in Versailles, KY. She worked at Wolf Wiles clothing store for 22 years before they closed. She retired as a para-educator from the Fayette County School Systems. Mom, Granny, Aunt Anne and Ms. Anne, as most called her, never let grass grow under her feet, and the last year she was blessed to work with the Draper family and Ms. June by keeping Ms. June company. Anne had a very spirit and was always looking out and caring for family and friends.

In her Christian journey, she accepted Christ at an early age at Polk's Memorial Baptist Church, Mortonville, KY. She was a member of Bethel Baptist Church and for 31 years a faithful member of First Baptist Church, Bracktown until her death.

She was preceded in death by her siblings Christine Ashford, Lillian Munday, William Higgins, Mary Bentley, Charles Higgins, and James Higgins.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children Ricky Gray, Nizida (Felix) Williams, Debbie Gray, Andrea Higgins, all of Lexington, Dale (Stephanie) Gray, of Barstow, CA, Catreece Madison, of Louisville, KY, Paul (Mary) Munday, of Muskegon, MI, a host of grandchildren and two brothers; Clarence "Russell" (Helen) Higgins and Andrew "Buck" Higgins, all of Lexington, three sisters-in-law; Sarah Higgins, of Cleveland, OH, Arnetter Higgins, of Detroit, MI, and Anita Higgins of Lexington, KY and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close family friends. Acknowledgements made to special friends, Robin Draper and family, Ms. June, LaTonka Taylor, and a special niece, Joyce Marks.
