

Mr. Charleston James Brooks

February 11, 1951 - October 1, 2025

Charleston James Brooks was born on February 11, 1951, in Lexington, Kentucky, the youngest child of the late James Brooks and Hazel Beatrice Brooks.

He proudly served his country in the United States Army from November 1970 to November 1973, where he worked in Engineering and received the National Defense Service Medal of Honor.

Charlie touched the lives of many with his kindness and genuine spirit—he never met a stranger. Always willing to lend a helping hand, his vibrant personality, compassionate heart, and playful soul brought joy to everyone who knew him. He was truly cherished by all.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving siblings: sisters Betsy Brooks, Beatrice Clark, and brother Dan R. Brooks (Angelia B. Brooks). He is also survived by his nieces and nephews: James R. Brooks, Dawn Hardaway, Roger' Mullins, Darius Larson Mullins, Rasheed I. Shequelle, Lernana Talugo Mullins, Lernana Calzana Mullins, Charleston M. Brooks, Steven M. Brooks, Shawn Gabson, and Sheena Gabson; as well as a host of great-nieces and great-nephews.

Special friends, Dr. Paul and Rev. Junker, also held a dear place in his heart.

Charlie will forever remain in our hearts—his memory a lasting light in the lives of all who knew and loved him.
