

Mrs. Constance Marie Mitchum Lewis

May 11, 1963 - June 21, 2018

Constance Marie Mitchum Lewis was born May 11, 1963 to Bishop Joseph L. and National Mother Edith V. Mitchum. Elect Lady Lewis has one sibling, Denise M. Johnson. She was educated in the Anne Arundel Public School System, later attending Community College of Baltimore. Studies including Music, Drama, with Minor in Health Studies.

She received Christ at early age and was baptized in September 1981, as a former member of Holy Mt. Zion Temple where Her Father is the Senior Pastor and Presiding Prelate Bishop Joseph L.

Mitchum Emeritus, of the Church of God Founded by Jesus Christ, Inc.

Lady Lewis moved to Lexington, Kentucky in 1999 after marrying Pastor Lewis. They were blessed to have one birth son Robert Lewis IV (Baby "Q") who God saw fit to take home in 2001. The Lord led them to be the Foster Parents of multiple children for several years. Lady Lewis desire was to raise children in a loving, nurturing and God Fearing atmosphere. The Lord blessed Lady Lewis to encourage several families, during these moments to understand and embrace the meaning of family.

Lady Lewis formally served at the National Usher Board President in 1993 to 1999. She was later elected as Vice President of the Young People Holy union in 2009 and served for 4 years. The Lord has allowed Lady Lewis to be invited to several different speaking engagements. She has traveled to speak in several different cities and states. These include: New York City, Richmond VA, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Ohio, as well as traveling all over Kentucky. As Lady Lewis has said on many occasions “Thank You Lord for the places you have taken us and the people we have met.”

Lady Lewis was employed with Fayette County Public Schools System and Kroger Grocery Store. God had once again blessed Lady Lewis to use her gifts of nurturing and loving children. A gift that she was grateful for.

Survivors are her beloved husband, Robert E. G. Lewis III, Parents, Bishop Joseph Louis and Lady Edith Davenport Mitchum; one sister, Denise Mitchum Johnson; one god-brother, Justin Jackson; two nieces, MyKia Johnson, Destiny Johnson; father-in-law, Robert Lewis II; mother-in-law, Minister Lorenda Lewis; one sister-in-law, Michele Lewis; four brother-in-laws, Elder Lewis (Patricia) Cook Jr., Elder William (Christie) Lewis, Michael Lewis, Anthony Lewis; and a host of family, friends, and saints. She is preceded in death by her son, Robert E. G. Lewis IV.
