

Mr. Cornelius Hale Sr.

October 21, 1924 - April 22, 2015

Cornelius Hale, Sr. was October 21, 1924 in Marble Creek, KY. He was the son of the late Lula Mae Hale and Luther Hale.

Cornelius accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Marble Creek Baptist Church, where he was one of the oldest members. For many years, he worked as a waste management engineer.

He was a very energetic soul. Age never slowed him down; he could be seen walking all over the community.

He shared over sixty years of his life with his bride, Mrs. Rena Mae Hale, until her death.

He is preceded in death by three sisters, Dorothy Gateskill, Norma Jean Hale, and Betsy Lee Hale.

He leaves to mourn his loss by a son, Cornelius Hale, Jr.; two daughters, Katherine Hale and Dorothy Hale; six grandchildren, Jeffrey Hale, Anthony Hale, Norma Hale, April Hale, Lisa Johnson, and Robert (Lakeisha) Hale; thirteen great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends, including special friend, Christopher Davis.
