

Mr. David Wayne Clay

March 28, 1958 - April 8, 2018

David Wayne Clay was born March 28, 1958 in Lexington, Kentucky to the late Nancy “Suzie” Warfield and George Clay. David was a faithful servant of the Lord and was a member of Duncan Chapel United Methodist Church. He passed on to glory on April 8, 2018.

David was fast friend to all who met him and rarely met a stranger.

Affectionately referred to as the “Coupon King”, he loved clipping coupons and was never shy about sharing a good deal with family and friends.

A lifelong resident of Lexington, David attended Lafayette High School. After high school, he joined the United States Armed Forces serving in the US Army. David was previously employed at the University of Kentucky.

In addition to his mother, Suzie, and father George, he was preceded in death by his siblings James, George, and Dorothy.

David is survived by his devoted wife, Mary A. Clay, special niece, Tanellia Coulter, special friend like a brother, Eddie Jones, and a host of family and friends.
