

Mr. David "Doobie" Elwood Hawkins

September 14, 1943 - August 23, 2015

David "Doobie" Elwood Hawkins was born September 14, 1943. He was the son of John T. Hawkins and the late Ella Mae Pope-Bloodsaw.

He was a retired employee of the Lexington Country Club. He was also employed by Graves and Cox, Dawahares, and the Campbell House Inn.

Doobie was a member of East Second Street Christian Church where he was a member of the Men's Choir and Senior Usher Board.

He was a quite unassuming presence. He will be missed greatly. The smell of the smoke from his pipe, how he wore his glasses and how he tilted his hat "just right", so everybody knew he was stepping out on the town.

OHHHHHH!!!! How he loved his family.

Doobie leaves to cherish his memory two daughters; Davita Hawkins and ElBonita Hawkins, three grandchildren; David I. Hawkins, Leah L. Blanks and Elijah L. Blanks, a brother, Jonathan (Trina) Hawkins; a sister, Pauline (Gene) Relford; god-daughter, Julie James; two uncles, Robert (Cordia) Pope, Sr., Stinnett Pope; an aunt, Sarah Dedmon, three godgrandchildren; Jasmine R. James, Douglass S. Bean, and Marcus A. Bean a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins, including a special cousin, Elester "Tiny" (Bruce) White, and the mother of his children and his best friend, Murrell Hawkins-Miles.
