

Ms. Denise "Niecy" Diallo

August 10, 1982 - December 28, 2022

Denise Ann (Niecy) Diallo was born on Tuesday, August 10, 1982 to the late Jessie Ann Willis and Willie McLendon, in Cincinnati, Ohio and departed this life on Wednesday, December 28, 2022. Denise accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age in Cincinnati, Ohio and graduated from Hughes High School in 2000.

Continuing her education through Job Corps, she graduated in 2004 as a welder. As Denise journeyed through life, she quickly gained the knowledge and experience to become a Master Welder. She was thorough and excellent in her profession until an injury ended her welding career. Always interested in learning, Denise possessed a strong love for science and had a special interest in reptiles. For many years, she used her culinary skills in many of Lexington's restaurants and catering services.

Her love for music was always prevalent with her favorite artist being Erykah Badu.

Niecy was a strong woman who loved her family. When she spoke of her siblings, it was always with love! Her physical health during the past few years was not always the best. And recently, after a long hospital stay, her life's journey ended! She will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Denise is survived by three sons: Ahlerion Diallo, of Cincinnati, Ohio; and William Keith Lewis and Jaxson Alexander Lewis, of Versailles, KY; her life long partner, Keith B. Lewis, of Versailles, KY; and four siblings: Marcus Willis, Jennifer (Louis) Dickson, David (Tiana) King, Michelle King, and a host of relatives and friends.
