“ I loved me some Fraser! We had our ups and downs sometimes pretty heated but I always knew she had my back. She would light up the room with that big ole smile and some snide remark. We used to order wings on Sunday when we worked, she would also fancy up the break room.put a sheet on the table as a tablecloth and find a centerpiece. She taught me how to eat wings with gloves on haha. I have a ton of funny stories. She taught me how to change an attend without taking the pants off. The first time I saw her use shaving cream to clean someone I thought she was crazy but believe it works and takes away the urine smell. You will be missed dear lady.

“ I remember when Fraser was pregnant with her first daughter Dacoma. how she craved the shaved ice off of the freezer. She would come to the house and ask me to scrape her some off in a cup , she kept me laughing all the time never was a dull moment around her.. I would often tell her . Fraser you should have been a comedian and she would just laugh.. she will truly be missed..
