

Ms Fredricka Taylor Kemp

December 26, 1938 - March 28, 2021

Fredericka Taylor Kemp was born December 26, 1938, to the late Rev. Jesse William Kemp and Cleopatra Taylor Kemp in Chicago, Illinois. She entered into eternal rest on Sunday, March 28, 2021 in Lexington, Kentucky.

Ms. Kemp became a Christian at an incredibly young age. Her father was not only a Man of God, but a career member of the United States Army. Relocating frequently, she grew up all across the eastern half of the country, from Maine to Texas and everywhere between.

Settling in Lexington, Kentucky, she was a caring and devoted mother to her three boys. A dedicated and valued civil servant,

Ms. Kemp worked for 53 years of her life, retiring from both the Federal government and from the Commonwealth.

Besides her parents, Ms. Kemp was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Charles and Bertha Pittman; paternal grandparents, Taylor and William (Minnie) Kemp; and a grandson, Montez Graves.

She leaves to cherish her memories three sons, Kenneth (Myra) Spillman, Sr., Leslie D. (Teresa) Spillman, Jr. and Frederick T. (Teresa Anne) Spillman, Sr.; seven grandchildren, Frederick T. Spillman, Jr., Marcus Graves, Kenneth A.

Spillman, Jr., Jermaine Spillman, Raven Spillman, Cheyenne Spillman and Lance D. Spillman; eight great-grandchildren; and a host of cousins, other relatives and many friends.
