

Mr. George William Ross

January 30, 1969 - December 26, 2025

George William Ross (Black Boo) was born January 30, 1969 in Lexington, KY. He is the son of Catherine L. Ross and the late Elliott Carter Jr.

George was educated in the Fayette County Public School system; however, he was proud to have earned his GED to complete his education.

He was a man of many talents, a man who was spiritual and meditated in prayer everyday.

He was preceded in death by his son Le'Ronte Sparks; two brothers, Gregory Carter and Elliott Carter, Jr.; five aunts, Rowena (Robert) Gentry, Lucille (George) Beatty, Jr., Izola (John) Beatty, Ann Sales and Myrna Carter; two uncles, Thomas Bradley and Herman Sales.

Besides his mother, he will be sadly missed by his daughter Georgette (George) Jeter: sister Sheila

A. Ross; two brothers, Jimmy (Tabitha) Ross and Gregory Haley; aunt Samantha (Roy) Martin; uncle George (Lida) Carter, Jr.: a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends including close friends, Jason Taylor Ray Washington and Marcus Parrish.

Cemetery Details

Cove Haven Cemetery

984 Whitney Avenue
Lexington, KY 40508

Previous Events

Family Gathering

JAN 1. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (ET)

House Of God Convention Center
866 Georgetown St
Lexington, KY 40511

Funeral Service

JAN 1. 12:00 PM (ET)

House Of God Convention Center
866 Georgetown St
Lexington, KY 40511

Tribute Wall

SS

“ You will definitely be missed Babydaddy I will love you always 💜 give our son a kiss for me 😔

September sparks - January 01 at 11:42 AM

AW

“ I love me some Black Boo, he will definitely be missed by me and my son Ty, sending prayers for the whole family. From Anna Webb and Family

Anna Webb - December 31, 2025 at 04:50 PM