

Mrs. Gloria Jackson Edwards

July 4, 1948 - June 15, 2016

Gloria Jackson Edwards was born July 4, 1948 in Cincinnati, Oh to the late Julia Jackson and Edward Henderson.

After she married the love of her life, the late Paul R. Edwards, Sr, she moved to Lexington. She became a member of Duncan Chapel United Methodist Church. She served faithfully as recording secretary, historian, trustee, choir member, and the Missionary Department at Jimtown Baptist Church. Her first priority was the well-being of her church and the membership.

She worked through Kelly Services before acquiring a job as a secretary with the Department of Human Resources and later a social worker in Child Protection. She got her Bachelors' of Education from University of Cincinnati and Masters' from Central State University. In 1985, she became a Business Education teacher at Bryan Station Middle School where she touched the minds of children for 24 years.

Gloria leaves to cherish her memory a daughter, Julia Susan Edwards; six step-children, Aldra, Paul(Christine) Jr., Richard, Kimberly, Shauntel, and Paula; two brothers, Curtis Cameron, Ronald (Joann) Jackson; a sister, Janice Cameron, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.
