

Mr. Guy Lamont Minnifield

June 2, 1961 - October 4, 2023

Guy Lamont Minnifield was born on June 2, 1961, the son of Dr. Catherine Minnifield, pastor of the House of Elath, and the late Warren Taylor. He died on Wednesday, October 4, 2023, unexpectedly at his home at the age of 62. A native of Lexington, Kentucky and a graduate of Henry Clay High School, he signed a national letter of intent to Iowa State University, but later transferred to Morehead State University where he graduated. He played basketball throughout his tenure at Morehead and made it to the NCAA tournament twice, 1983 and 1984. He was the best long shot shooter before the 3 point shot was added to the game of basketball in High School and College. Guy also tried out for the Professional Combine. After finishing college, he joined the United States Navy in 1986. He loved to have fun riding people, giving them nicknames to fit their personality. His favorite saying was, "PUT ME IN THE GAME. "

Guy was baptized and became a member of the House of Elath, Temple of the Mighty God in 1994, under the leadership of Dr. Catherine Minnifield. He was employed at many jobs, but the Lexington Fayette Urban County Government-Sanitation Department was his last employer. He also worked for the Cabinet of Human Resources Social Insurance and Magna Graphics. Besides his father, he was preceded in death by one daughter, Dominique Shanks.

In addition to his mother, Dr. Catherine Minnifield, Guy leaves to cherish his memory one son, Domineco Shanks; one sister, Blanche Williams; three brothers, Steven Minnifield, Frank (Honorable Diane) Minnifield, Jeffrey Minnifield and other siblings; four grandchildren, EúCari Garner, Giovanni Crawford, Taylor Gardner and Kam'Ron Gardner; one great-grandson, Cario Garner; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and other relatives; plus one close family friend, Kimm Shanks and a special friend, Antoinette Faulkner.
