

Mr. James Arthur Grey

December 11, 1932 - February 9, 2020

James Arthur Grey was born December 11, 1932 to the late Bessie Walker Grey and the late Lewis H. Grey, Sr. in Jessamine County, Kentucky. James accepted Christ at an early age and joined First Baptist Church, Nicholasville, Kentucky.

As a young man he joined the United States Army during the Korean Conflict. He fell in love and married Mary A. Grey. To this union seven children were born.

James was employed and retired as a truck driver. In his leisure time, he enjoyed fishing and it was hard to beat him at his favorite game, horseshoes. Besides his wife, he was preceded in the death by two children, Jeffrey Grey and Annette Grey; three brothers, Rev. William Grey, Booker Grey, and Cotton Grey; and a sister, Ora Mae Grey.

James leaves his memory five sons, Donovan Grey, Frazier Grey, James Grey, Theodore Grey and Rod Grey; several grandchildren, and great-grandchildren; two sisters, Jeanette Higgins and Eleanora Miller; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
