

Mr. James Lee "Jamie" Jackson

March 23, 1959 - January 3, 2023

James Lee Jackson was born on March 23, 1959, to the late Bessie Lee Brown Jackson and Frank Jackson, Sr.

"Jamie," as he was known to most, accepted Christ at an early age and joined First Baptist Church of Versailles, Kentucky. He later became a member of Total Grace Baptist Church. Jamie frequently visited Little Zion Baptist Church Avon, Consolidated Baptist Church and Maddoxtown Baptist Church. He loved going to church musicals and worship services.

Jamie was a graduate of Henry Clay High School. He acquired many life long friendships. Jamie was a board member of the Chronic Pain Support Group, Inc. He worked faithfully with people with disabilities and chronic pain. He was very kind and loving. He was always giving to anyone in some way. He love to eat and always enjoyed his music. He enjoyed playing the lottery and traveling to casinos.

Jamie leaves to cherish his memory a sister, Phyllis Burns; a brother, Frank Jackson, Jr.; an uncle, Rev. Howard Jackson; a special friend/ godmother, Minnie, a host of nieces, nephews, friends and cousins, including a special cousin, Velicia Walker. He will be missed by all who knew him.
