

Ms. Joann McDermott Hatcher

October 29, 1943 - December 25, 2019

Joann M. Hatcher was born in Calhoun, Tennessee, on October 29, 1943, the daughter of the late John and Essie McDermott. She was called home to be with the Lord on Christmas Day, December 25, 2019.

Ms. Hatcher was a graduate of the old Douglass High School's Class of 1963. She was employed by Irvine Industries years ago and became an LPN working in home health care after graduating nursing school at Vo-Tech. She served many years at Eastern State Hospital, Lexington, Kentucky and the Department for Family and Children in Frankfort, Kentucky until her retirement.

Ms. Hatcher was very active at Shiloh Baptist Church participating in numerous auxiliaries: Missionary, Hospitality, Nursing Home, Women's Bible Sunday School, St. James Outreach, Christian Women's Enhancement Conference and B.U.I.L.D.-Nehemiah Action Project, a faith-based community coalition. Ms. Hatcher was also a faithful participant with Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Bible Studies.

Aside from her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, John McDermott, Jr., and three sisters, Arizona (Matt) Jackson, Wanda (Joe) Frye and Renda Jackson-McDermott.

She leaves to cherish her memory two daughters, Cassandra (Charles) Gurney and Trenlena Hatcher; a beloved grandson, Corey Peoples; a sister, Sammie Francis; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
