

Ms Julia Ann Warner Venable

June 10, 1952 - June 7, 2021

Julia Ann Warner Venable was born to Martha A. Warner in Springfield, Kentucky, on June 10, 1952. On Monday, June 7, 2021, at one o'clock in the afternoon, Judy heard the Voice of her Savior telling her to, "come on home."

Judy, as she was affectionately known, was baptized at an early age. Throughout her life, she attended various Baptist Churches and most recently she had become a regular attendee at Pleasant Green Missionary Baptist Church.

After moving to Lexington, Judy attended Bryan Station High School as a member of the Class of 1970. A long-time resident of Fayette County, Kentucky, he retired from the University of Kentucky after 20 years of employment.

Judy was preceded in death by one brother, Larry E. Warner. In addition to her caring mother, Judy leaves to cherish her memories, her two loving daughters, Denise Michele (Marcell) Coffey and Antonia Denee Warner; her bonus son, Lee Bryant; five sisters, Catherine (Jerry) Frye, Darlene Warner and Iona Warner, Cheryl Warner of Atlanta, GA and Carol (Bobby) Edmonds of Hopkinsville, KY; four brothers, Robert (Juanita) Warner, Carl Warner and Darryl Warner, Sr. and Earl Warner of Beattyville, KY; in-laws, James and Fannie Coffey; four aunts, Nellie Warner, Sarah Warner and Margaret Mays, and Lillian Warner of Louisville, KY; two uncles,

Charles (Rita) Warner, and Charles Leon Young of Springfield, KY; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, including special friends, Dorothy Gay, Darlene Gillespie, Betty Graham and Donna Sweat, as well as her fellow residents and friends, and the staff at Cambridge Place Nursing Home
