

Mrs. Linda Sue Curtis

July 20, 1954 - July 14, 2016

Linda Sue Curtis was born July 20, 1954 to the late Sue Garr and Samuel Sturgis. She was loving raised by her stepfather, Cleveland Clark.

Linda accepted Christ at an early age as a member of Pilgrim Baptist Church. She later joined Morning Star Baptist Church. She was a graduate of Henry Clay High School and an eighteen year employee of University of Kentucky Hospital.

She loved to be surrounded by her family and friends. Her smile, accented by her red lipstick, would brighten up a room.

She is preceded in death by a granddaughter, Lashaneeka Kimball.

Linda leaves to cherish her memory the love of her life, her husband, Donald Curtis; two sons, Eric Kimball and Marc (Dameka) Kimball; two daughters, Keona Kimball and Deidre Kimball; two step-daughters, Tameka Greer and Dewanna (Anthony) Shields; four step-sons, Demarco Curtis, Ronrico Greer, Raymond Greer; sixteen grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; eight sisters, Doris (Clinton) Easter, Angela Sturgis, Karen Sturgis, Yvonne (Chet) Gill, Jacqueline Sturgis, Sandra Wakefield, Sharon Sturgis, and Sharon Cooper; two brothers, Samuel Sturgis, Jr. and Cleveland Sturgis; mother-in-law, Alice Curtis; brother-in-law, Raymond (Rachel) Curtis; Sister-in-law, Sharon (William) Raven; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends, including special friends, Gayle Miller, Pam Gray, and Bobbie Lawson.
