

Dr. Luv'Tesha Robertson

December 20, 1981 - August 11, 2025

Dr. Luv'Tesha Robertson was born December 20, 1981, to James Thompson and the late Virginia Anderson in Lexington, KY.

Dr. Robertson was a member of First African Baptist Church.

She was educated in the Fayette County Public School System.

She earned her high school diploma from Bryan Station High School, an Associate in Applied Science from Kentucky Technical College, a Bachelor's in Business Administration, and a Master's from Sullivan University.

She later earned her Doctorate in Education from Eastern Kentucky University and graduated Summa Cum Laude in 2016.

While in college, she joined Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. She was also a member of the Central Kentucky Chapter of Jack and Jill of America.

She was proud to hold the position of Deputy Executive Director – Kentucky Education & Labor Cabinet.

She performed and won Little Miss Black Lexington in 1998.

She is preceded in death by her mother, Virginia Anderson; brother, Robert Anderson; sister, Malita Anderson; and mother-in-law, Sandra Robertson.

Before her passing, and because of her love of education and her dedication to elevating young women to be successful, she established the Dr. LuvTasha Robertson Scholarship Fund, to be given out by First African Baptist Church.

Besides her father, she leaves to cherish her memory:

her husband of 17 years, Phillip Robertson;

three children, Phillip Robertson, Jr., Kayman Robertson, and Jaida Guess;

a brother, Kevin Thompson;

grandfather, Dudley Bell, Sr.;

Godparents, Tim (Sandra) Coleman;

four uncles, Dudley Bell, Jr., Fred Brown, Donnie (Vicky) Brown, and Kenneth Robertson;

three aunts, Regina Anderson, Nancy Anderson, and Crystal Warren;

a sister-in-law, Cassandra Robertson;

special aunt, Anna Robertson;

and a host of cousins, including a special cousin, Nanette Jackson, and many friends.
