

Mr. Melvin Clark Mock

July 21, 1951 - January 27, 2026

Melvin C. Mock was born on July 21, 1951, to the late Erma Dee Mock and Christopher Mock. He was raised in the Spiegel Hill Neighborhood and was one of seven children in a close-knit and loving family.

In 1971, Mr. Mock honorably enlisted in the United States Marine Corps, proudly serving his country. Following his military service, he returned home and worked faithfully for Kentucky Sausage, an overnight trucking company, and United Building Service. Throughout his life, Melvin was known for his strong work ethic and his skillful hands. He was the family's trusted handyman, often referred to as "Mr. Fix-It," as no task was ever too small or too large for him to complete.

Mr. Mock had a passion for travel and enjoyed visiting new places. He often expressed his desire to one day travel across the country in an RV, a dream that reflected his adventurous spirit and love for discovery.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Mock was preceded in death by his brothers, Samuel William Mock and Johnnie Lewis (Goldie) Mock; his brother-in-law Glenn H. Gardern, and the mothers of his children, Margaret Morton Mock and Eloise Coleman Mock.

He leaves to cherish his memory his beloved children: Deanna (Stanford) Mock Hayes; Melvin (Chavae) Mock, Jr.; Charmyne (Lawrence) Lee;

Christopher (Princess) Coleman; James Coleman; William Fitzgerald; Jason Mock; and Karyn (Muritala) Aremu. He is also survived by a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Mr. Mock is further survived by his sisters, Mildred Mock, Betty (Harold) Middlebrook of Knoxville, Tennessee, and Brenda Gardener; his brothers, David Mock, Rev. Ralph (Gloria) Mock of Houston Texas, Charles Mock of Tuscaloosa Alabama and James (Patricia) Mock of Clarksville, Kentucky; As well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and friends.

He is also remembered fondly by his special friend, Deborah Johnson, and many friends whose lives he touched throughout the years.

“ Never really met Melvin but we corresponded many times over the years, especially about sports, Although we never mentioned it that were some kin since we have the same last name, Mock. Lot of people got us mixed up. My name is Marvin R Mock and from Greensboro NC but live in Kansas. Sending prayers and condolences to the family.RIP...Shalom.
