

Bro. Morris Clay Engles, Sr.

June 14, 1925 - March 8, 2020

Morris Clay Engles was born on June 14, 1925, in Lexington, Kentucky, the son of the late Clarence and Hattie Engles. He transitioned on March 8, 2020 at Lake Ridge Acres Nursing Home in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Morris accepted Christ at an early age and joined Quinn Chapel A.M.E. Church. He later transferred his membership to Consolidated Baptist Church where he was a member of the Mighty Men's Choir and early on helped with lawn care of the church grounds. Morris was also a member of the HiFi Jazz Club.

Morris received his education from Fayette County Public Schools. He also attended Tucker's Beauty and Barber College in Louisville, Kentucky. Later in life Morris was employed as a Fayette County Community Corrections Officer, drove for the Lexington Senior Citizen Center and later retired from the Lexington Signal Depot and the V.A. Medical Center.

Morris was preceded in death by his parents, Clarence and Hattie Engles; and his two brothers, Clarence Engles, Jr. and Samuel Engles.

Morris leaves to honor and cherish his memory his loving wife Doris T. Engles; five sons, Fred (Angela) Mitchell, Morris (Marie) Engles, Jr., Clarence Engles, Randall (Bellita Croley) Espy, and Wendell (Fernon) Espy; two daughters, Viginer Engles (Charles) and Sharon Espy; 19 grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; his cousin/sister Lutisha C. Morton; several nieces and nephews, and a host of extended family and friends.

Cemetery Details

Camp Nelson National Cemetery

6980 Danville RD
Nicholasville, KY