

Mr. Nelson Davis III

June 1, 1961 - April 24, 2026

Nelson Davis, III, 64, passed away peacefully on April 24, 2026, in Frankfort, Kentucky, following an extended illness, which he fought until the very end.

Born on June 1, 1961, in Lexington, Kentucky, Nelson was the son of the late Nelson Davis, Jr. and Barbara Ann Davis. His life journey took him across the country, from Lexington to Fayetteville, North Carolina, then to Tacoma, Washington, before ultimately returning home to Kentucky. For the past 25 years, he made his home in Cynthiana, where he built a life rooted in familiarity and connection.

Nelson was a man who valued family deeply in his own way. He was always found around family where he was affectionally known as “Inky” and “Beta”. He found joy in staying on the move, never one to sit still for long, and had a special passion for fishing, often finding peace and reflection by the water. He was preceded in death by his sisters, Deborah Davis and Donna Davis; his brother, Tyrone Davis; and his beloved grandson, Mozzi Moore.

He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Nelsheica Roberts; his sisters, Norma Hart, Lisa Davis, and Tammy (Norman) Mack; his brothers, Guy Davis and Christopher Davis; and his grandchildren, Sanchaze, Santazia, Santerria, George, Santavion and Davion. Nelson also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will remember him in their own special ways.

Nelson's life was one of movement, resilience, and lively strength. He will be remembered for the moments he shared, the places he traveled, and the mark he left on those who knew him.
