

Ms. Patricia Ann Anderson

March 17, 1946 - February 4, 2023

Ms. Patricia Ann Anderson was born on March 17, 1946, to the late Richard and Ruth Anderson Jr. Patricia left this world and transitioned into her eternal life on Saturday, February 2023.

Patricia found Christ at an early age and joined Bethel Baptist Church under pastoral leadership of Rev. Walter Taylor, Jr. She also loved to attend services with her grandmother, Mama Hazel, at St. John Baptist Church.

Patricia graduated from Douglass High School and then attended Lexington Community College to study nursing. Patty became a registered nurse and later worked her way up to becoming a head nurse at Good Samaritan Hospital. Her final days as a nurse were spent working at the federal prison and in a nursing home until her retirement.

Patricia was preceded in death by her former husband, Jesse Porter; grandparents, Anna Anderson, Will and Hazel Cummins; three brothers, Ricky, David, and Billy Anderson; aunts, Marian "Lady" Brown, Geraldine "Dee-Dee" Cummins, and Noretta "Pie" Cummins; three uncles, Carl "Sondough," Harold "Jebbo," and Norman "Pudgie;" a nephew, Tyshaun Potter; and brother-in-law, Alonzo L. McDermott, Jr.

While Patricia did not have children of her own, God blessed her to be a loving mother to many. She leaves to cherish her memories with Charon, Patricia "Bambi," and TiQuan Anderson; granddaughter, Dezerai Trent; and nephews, De'Andre and Jaylen Anderson, all whom she raised as her own. In addition, Patricia leaves the fondest of memories with her three remaining sisters, Gloria “Jennie” Anderson, Toni McDermott, and Kim “Missy” Anderson; aunt, Anna Mae Richardson; uncle, Larry (Linda) VanDyke; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
