Then he took up a new trade and went to work for the University of Kentucky Med Center Physical Plant Department on January 2, 1984 as a painter. After 35 years of dedicated service, he retired from UK on January 2, 2019.

They loved traveling, going on Family Reunion trips and were blessed to go on three cruises. He loved his family, his pet - Bentley, and his Mt. Calvary Church Family. He enjoyed camping in the Gorge, fishing every now and then, watching Westerns and MeTV, and listening to Yolanda Adams. He also enjoyed working the polls as an Election Officer, often serving as Sheriff. He was honored to be a Kentucky Colonel. When it came to football, Ralph was a die-hard Cleveland Browns fan.
