

Mr. Robert "Dj Slob" Young Jr.

October 31, 1968 - February 13, 2026

Robert "DJ Slob" Young Jr. was born on October 31, 1968, to Robert "Jimmy" Mitchell Sr. and Elect Lady Elenor Young, but was raised by Everett Fisher. On February 13th, God called Robert home, and he entered his eternal resting place.

Robert accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of the House of God #2 under the late Bertolini Byrd, where he served loud and proudly as a Deacon.

He was educated in Fayette County Public Schools and was a graduate of Tates Creek High School (Commodores), where he played football. After graduating, he then went on to Fugazzi College of Business to pursue his dream as a DJ.

Robert was a man known to many as the best DJ, a great father, a good friend, a man of humor, and a people person. Robert was there for everyone. Robert worked for Micro City Government, fulfilling his dream as one of the greatest DJs, then went on to work for himself as a professional DJ, servicing every party, wedding, or any venue that needed music. His commitment to his community was unmatched. He loved everyone, and everyone loved him. He really took pride in everything the community had to offer and always lent a helping hand. Outside of work, he was committed to his family.

Robert was preceded in death by his son, Robert Young III; his parents, Everett Fisher, Robert "Jimmy" Mitchell Sr., and Elect Lady Elenor Young; his sister, Janice Young; two brothers, Everett Young and Ave (Pony) Haddix; two aunts, Brenda Lee Young and Billie Young; and a niece, Jamica Lindsey.

He leaves to cherish six sons, Dominique Hill, Eric Hill, Stephon Hill, Aaron Lewis, Roberto Hill, and Ryhem Hill; seven daughters, Sonisha Hayes, Eureka Davenport, Raven Smith, Aries Brooks, Uniquequa Brooks, Sharell Hill, and Mllique Hill; five sisters, Renessa Young, Gloria Young, Janie Mitchell, Stella Mitchell, and Brenda Mitchell; three brothers, Robert Mitchell Jr., Jessie Mitchell, and Jeffrey Mitchell; seventeen grandkids; a host of nieces and nephews; two special cousins, Roberta Grooves and Terry Craig; and two special friends, Stephanie Penman and Lashonda Eggerson.

DJ Slob will be missed by all those that knew and loved him.

“ I am missing my buddy already. Always a laugh when he was in the house and non stop dancing because his deejay skills surpassed many. He called me his cousin when he would do events for people at the Lyric Theatre and would say he wasn't going to come unless I was there because he needed security and I knew where all the exits were. Lol Rest my friend....Until Later
