

Ms. Sharon Mason Engles

March 11, 1944 - July 4, 2020

Ms. Sharon Mason Engles was born March 11, 1944 in Lexington, Kentucky, the daughter of the late Helen and Paul Mason. She received her formal education in the Fayette County Public School system graduating from the old Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. She later received her associates degree from the University of Kentucky.

She became a Para-Educator for several schools in Lexington, serving the needs of both teachers and students became her great passion. In later years, she became an administrator and counselor for the Veterans Affairs Hospital where she retired with distinction.

Ms. Sharon, at the age of six, accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior and became a member of Historic Pleasant Green Missionary Baptist Church. For many years she served the church faithfully in several auxiliaries including leadership positions as the secretary for both the Senior Usher Board and Joint Usher Board. She often shared her poetic talent by writing and reading poems for special occasions in the church. She was also a member of the Forty Year Christian Group.

Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by two children, Shari Taylor and Robert Taylor, Jr.; and two grandchildren, Dominique Rashawn Johnson and Robert Gateskill.

Ms. Sharon Engles will be lovingly missed by her two surviving children, Cheryl Taylor Johnson and Anthony Brian Taylor; six grandchildren, Michael Taylor, Shaun Taylor, Antonio Taylor, Francesca Taylor, Franceda Bennett, and Geion

Duffin; 22 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; a sister, Carolyn Mason; a son-in-law, Gregory Duffin; five step-children; extended family members, Dale Turner and Ginny Turner; special caregiver, Cheryl Newby; a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins including Margaret Smith and Sharon Black; and many friends including Samantha Martin, Norma Thomas, Barbara Underwood, and Dorothy Carter.
