

Miss Sharon "Sweetie" Elaine Harris-Combs

October 12, 1987 - July 11, 2017

Sharon Elaine "Sweetie" Harris-Combs was born October 12, 1987 in Lexington, Kentucky to Ms. Tonya Harris and lovingly nurtured by Phillip and Sonya Combs.

Sweetie grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio where she graduated from Harmony Charter School with Honors.

Sharon gave her life to Christ at an early age and became a member of Imani Baptist Church. Sweetie was a kind, quite, soft spoken, warm temperament, hard-working, independent young lady that loved beautiful things, such as jewelry, clothes, shoes, body art, and butterflies. Her warm, sweet, gentle spirit became what attracted acquaintances to her, and that's why we affectionately called her "Sweetie."

Her gift to the world was helping others in the healthcare industry. She was often praised for the excellent care she gave to her patients. Sweetie will be sadly missed but never forgotten by all of us that knew and loved her. She will forever be in our hearts and her memory will never fade.

If you should happen to need something scrumptious and you come across a Hershey's Cookies 'n Cream candy bar, hold it up to the sky and think of our beloved Sweetie.

Sweetie was preceded in death by a brother, DéNino Harris; grandparents, Sharon D.

Harris and Jesse B. Duke; and a cousin, Whitney L. Combs.

Besides her mother, Tonya V. Harris, she leaves to celebrate her life a daughter, Kaidynn Nivese Harris; twin sisters, Neokia and Teokia Harris; a brother, Phillip Michael Harris; a host of aunts and uncles including Sonya (Phillip) Combs, Elaine (Fred) Mathis, Harry (Kathy) Williams, André Washington, DeJalai Duke, Margaret (Richard) Amison, Cherice (Tyrone) Toombs, Kurtmen Duke, Joel Wallace, Michael (Carla) Reed, Kym “Da Diva” Davis, Renita Weatherington, Gerri Foster, Cynthia “Zip” Hinton and Kimberly Rhodes; three nieces, TáLaiya Givens, TáNivia Harris, and Taloria Harris; a host of cousins and many friends including special cousins and friends, Shira E.
