

Sir Zion Broyles, Jr.

April 21, 2016 - March 19, 2020

Sir Zion Broyles, Jr., son of Sir and Thomasina Broyles exploded into this world on April 21, 2016 and was the joy of everyone's heart. Zion was full of energy and could run like the wind. His smile was infectious, drawing off the strength of Gekko and the power of Paw Patrol, which caused him to become our own little hero.

Zion was preceded in death by maternal great-grandmother, Virginia Bell; maternal great-grandfather, Robert Mitchell; maternal grandmother, Darlene Coffey; paternal great-grandmother, Ora Lee Broyles; paternal great-great-aunt, Geneva Broyles Turner; and paternal great-great-uncle Master Turner. Besides his parents, Zion leaves to cherish his memories three loving grandmothers, Teresa Mitchell, Chernessee Broyles, and Alberta Wesley; grandfathers, Keith Winn and Thomas Coffey; great-grandfather, Jackie L. Gee; great-grandmother, Alberta Broyles Turner; seven uncles, Mister (Whitney) Broyles, Lawrence Thomas, Davon Thomas, Orithian "Rimp" Mitchell, Robert (Ashley) Mitchell, Eric (Barbara) Mitchell and Zack Jennings; four aunts, Sierra Coffey, Devonia Mitchell, Nefetiria Miller and Uridessy Wesley; great-uncles, Parris (Denise) Broyles, Joe Mitchell and John Lisle; great-aunts, Carol Mitchell, Rose Mitchell, Katie McCowan, and Cathy Marshall; god-mother, Brittany Lear; god-father, Charlies Jones; and a host of cousins and friends, including a special friend, Alana Mitchell.

Cemetery Details

Cove Haven Cemetery

984 Whitney Avenue
Lexington, KY 40508