

Mr. Terrence S. McGhee

June 22, 1981 - August 12, 2021

Terrence S. McGhee was born June 22, 1981, to the late Pamela McGhee and Roosevelt Cole in Jackson, Mississippi. Terrence was lovingly raised by the late Ray Charles Robinson.

During his lifetime, his education experience developed greatly by being taught in Mississippi, Wisconsin and Kentucky. After receiving his GED, he furthered his education at National College of Business.

Terrence accepted Christ and was baptized during a street revival preached by Elder Cecil Tatum. In later years, he joined Now Faith Worship Center and attended Shiloh Baptist Church.

Terrence was fun loving. He loved to do acrobatics. He loved a good conversation. He always had an encouraging word for those he took time to talk with. The Bible had become the center point of his life. He loved his family and friends. He was inspiring, encouraging, loved the Lord and to testify about his salvation. While in the streets and giving testimony of his life to help others come to know Christ, many were touched by his humble spirit, his smile and the love that he showed to others. His beautiful smile, contagious laugh and deep mischievous dimples would cause laughter to break out.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Roosevelt Cole, IV; and a sister,

Patricia Taylor.

He leaves to cherish his memory his brothers, Raymond McGhee, Darrious McGhee, Patrick McGhee, Eric McGhee, Keith McGhee, Robert McGhee, Patrick Cole, Roosevelt Cole, V, Damien Scott, Cassius Cole and Tredarius Cole; his sisters, Aretha (Charles)Fortune, Candace, Cooper, Shanita Booker, Anquan Robinson, Angie Cole, Dorothy Haymer, Jasmine Cole, Tywanda Cole and Jacqueline Parks; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
