

Ms. Vera Johnson

October 4, 1956 - August 4, 2017

Vera Johnson was born October 4, 1956 to the late Marie Louise Howard and Milton Locke, Jr.

She accepted Christ and became a faithful member of Power House Church of God.

She was a retired Nursing Assistant at University of Kentucky Hospital. Vera was known for being brutally honest- if you didn't want to know something- don't ask her.

She is preceded in death by a sister, Veronica Bell; a brother, Mark Branham; and a brother-in-law, James Denning, Sr.

She will be lovingly missed by her two daughters, Verkisha (Dexter) Cook and Henika Searight; 12 grandchildren, Jakisha Bell, Tay'Zhanika Morton, Jeffery Harbison, Jr., Zahara Cook, Lathon Murrell, Jr., Beverly King, Dexter Cook, Jr., Ikeona Ingram, Mia Ingram, Tara Ingram, Davonte Murrell and Dayshan Ingram; one great-grandson, Elijah Taylor; three sisters, Yvonne Denning, Erica James and Monique Branham; a brother, Tony (Michelle) Locke; her love in life, Tony Rhodes; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ It's been almost 3 years since you been gone and I still miss you and love you the same, if not more; my heart is heavy without you, I'm not in church like I use to be anymore; I'm hurting Momma cus I'm without you. I love you and a big chunk of me is missing in you. Please save me a spot next to you thank you for passing me your spiritual gifts and allowing me to be who you already knew I was; with what you passed to me and what I already had is mind-blowing. I promise I will get back to it before it is too late for I will be with you again one day but not too soon cus I have ur grandbabies n great grandson to tend to. Yes ur 1st great grandson lol. I know that's you he be talking to and laughing with. ”
