

Mrs. Wanda Douglas Thomas

March 27, 1948 - January 2, 2019

Wanda Douglas Thomas was born March 27, 1948 to Betty Wingate Douglas and the late William Douglas, Sr. of Lexington, Kentucky. She departed this earthly life for her glory in heaven on January 2, 2019.

Wanda attended Fayette County Public Schools which included the Old Dunbar High School. She was employed by the Kentucky State Government Unemployment Division of Human Resources. While being employed with the government, she helped many people in the community. After retirement, she followed her passion for children and became a child care provider. Using her many gifts from God, she helped to raise and mentor many children. Her home was always filled with love and laughter. Her hobbies included a love for flowers, fishing, frog hunting, sewing, a love for macramé and house decorating.

She was married to the late Clarence Samuel Thomas for 27 years. She accepted Christ at young age and later joined the House of God Temple #2 under the leadership of the late Bishop J.B. Thomas Sr. She participated on the Nurses Guild and was an active member of "The Voices of Love" singing group. In later years, as her health would permit, she attended Ann Street House of God under the leadership of Apostle J.B. Thomas Jr.

She was preceded in death by her husband Clarence Thomas, and her brother, William "Joe" Douglas, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory, a devoted mother, Mrs. Betty Douglas; a devoted daughter, Felicia (Otis) Webb, Jr.; her caregivers and grandchildren,

Denise Webb and Otis Webb III; five great grandchildren; special nephew, Maurice Douglas; special sons, Seneca Thomas and Samuel Thomas; a special niece, Ariel Travis; three brothers-in-law, Apostle J. B.(Patricia) Thomas, Jr., Marion (Marian) Thomas, Steven (Mary) Thomas; five sisters-in-law, Frances Taylor, Rubye Lindsey, Eleanor (Leon) Wilson, Ruth (Edward) Rawlings and Joy Thomas; special friends, Connie Fain, Janice Anderson, and Anna Johnson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
