

Mr. William Allen Briscoe III

April 22, 1953 - June 9, 2022

William Allen Briscoe III, age 69, transitioned from his earthly vessel on Thursday, June 9, 2022 at his home surrounded by loved ones. He was known to many as “Bubba”. William was born on April 22, 1953, in Lexington Kentucky, to the late Rosie Viola Briscoe and William Allen Briscoe Jr.

William graduated from Bryan Station H. S. in 1971. After graduation he joined the United States Air Force in 1971 to 1974. He was discharged with Honors. After leaving the Air Force, William attended Bluegrass Community College, where he received his certification in Business Machinery. After college he went to work at the University of Kentucky, in the Geological Services as a supervisor for over 20 years.

William was the father of 3 beautiful children, Darrick (Tonya) Briscoe, Trekeisha Edwards and William (Brittany) Briscoe. He leaves 8 grandchildren, Xavier Edwards, Kuantashia Cloyd, Zakuan Cloyd, Logan Briscoe, Kennedy Briscoe, Kendyl Briscoe, Jayden Colleen, and David Colleen.

is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.

William leaves an incredibly special person in his life, Miss Kassy Gray. THANK YOU for loving William to the end, and his special canine friend "MiMi".

William was the biggest UK Wildcats fan in the world. He loved cutting grass, that was his passion. He always made sure your lawn was the best lawn on the street. He loved to fish and hunt. He also loved working on cars with his friend Kenney. William was the life of the party and old make sure he wash serious at the end of the day. He loved the Westside and the Bottom. If your ever crossed path with William, you were sure to love him.

The true glory of living and knowing, life and death comes once, but your legacy will live on with your name written in stone at your final resting place forever! Ron Briscoe
